DESCRIPTION

Very reluctant sale of my 1275 GT fondly known as Alphie I've owned him since 2007, he's fairly original. He sports the usual 70s deck chair interior. Cream carpets but I do have his originals and spare interior. He looks pretty sharp sporting his lotus colours. He runs and drives beautifully. Tho a little walk ward in the cold. The previous owner gave his engine a little tweak, bigger valves hardened seats etc. the bad bits, he's gets getting a little tired round the edges. But he still polishes up to be a stunning little head turner. Not to many of the GTs left as most where raced. Please no time wasters
