DESCRIPTION

Wanted. We are looking to research the transport used by Scottish based John W. Hannay & Co who were operating from the 60s through to the 90s. Hannay's used various types of transport between their depots and factories across Scotland and were a common sight on the roads with their hopped loads and trailers. They also ran an extensive truck service depot at another site in East Kilbride. Anyone out there who can help with photos, I would be pleased to hear from them.
