DESCRIPTION

1901 era. This meticulously crafted model sized at 4 1/2 inches to the foot, features a vertical coal fired boiler, wooden artillery wheels, and a fully sprung chassis. It comes with two water tanks, a mechanical water pump, and a steam-driven weir pump. The compound steam engine offers double high or compound operation, and it has five road gears suitable for various terrains. The wagon includes a mechanical bell and comes with a matching trailer. The vertical boiler has undergone a full inspection and testing.
